Seeding the Future

Help Us Grow the New John Jermain Seed Library

What do seeds, books and libraries have in common? They all tell a story, whether it is through language or genetic code. Help us grow our seed library by taking a seed packet or donating any seeds you'd like to share with the community. It holds seeds in trust for library members to borrow and plant, with the idea that they will let a plant or two "go to seed" at the end of the growing season to collect seeds that will be returned to the library. Start saving your seeds to grow your own garden, farm or window-box, and be a part of our Seed Library! Ask how to participate at our front desk, starting September 15th.

Learn to Save Seeds and Start New Plants With Them

Saving seeds from the plants in your garden is easy and incredibly rewarding. In this program you will learn how to correctly save and store the seeds you eventually will use to start next year's garden. Topics covered will include: identifying the right seeds to save, how to dry and store them over the winter, finding the right seeds to purchase, and giving your plants the best possible start in the Spring. Registration is required and attendance is limited to 40.

Sunday, September 15, 3:00-4:45 PM

September is Library Card Sign-up Month

Library Card Sign-up Month is a national observance that was launched to ensure that everyone obtains a library card. Studies show that children who use the library perform better in school and are more likely to continue to use the library as a source of lifetime learning. And people of all ages benefit from what the library offers! If you don't have your library card, be sure to come in this month to get one or visit our booth at HarborFest. It's free! Check the value calculator (<http://www.ilovelibraries.org/what-libraries-do/calculator>) to see how it can even save you money.

Meet Us On Long Wharf at HarborFest, September 7

Kids of all ages are invited to stop by our booth at HarborFest, Saturday, September 7, from 12:00 noon to 3:00 PM to make a special craft to take home! We'll have the craft supplies you need on hand, but availability may be limited, so come early if you can.

And don't forget: September is National Library Card Sign-up Month (check out the article to the left for more information), so we're making it possible for adults to get a new library card--or renew your old one if it's expired--at our HarborFest booth.

IN THE PAMELA & LAURENCE ROSSBACH COMMUNITY GALLERY

Terry Elkins

Terry Elkins' works cover a range of subjects from landscapes and seascapes to maritime and nautical images. His works have been exhibited throughout the United States and abroad, receiving two Pollock-Krasner Foundation Awards.

This exhibit opened on August 3rd and continues through September 15.

Carolyn Conrad

Carolyn Conrad composes familiar landscapes of New England and Long Island by painting, drawing, and building constructions which she then photographs. She is interested in paring down and simplifying form while creating dialogues that hold the compositions together. In her lint and grid assemblages, she takes a similar minimalist approach. "Simplify" is my is her artistic credo, while striving for nuance and complex meaning within the simplicity.

Exhibit: October 1-November 15

Reception: Saturday, October 12, 2:30-4:30 PM

PARKINSON'S DISEASE LECTURE SERIES

Offered in collaboration with Stony Brook Southampton Hospital's Center For Parkinson's Disease.

Non-motor Symptoms of Parkinson's Disease

Parkinson's disease is a chronic, progressive disease of the central nervous system. The nerve cells in the brain that control movement don't function properly, making it difficult for sufferers to move normally. Olga McAbee, MD, FAAN, Director of Neurology at Stony Brook Southampton Hospital, will outline the disease's progression, and underlying non-motor symptoms. Dr. McAbee will also discuss ways for Parkinson's patients to maintain a good quality of life. Registration required. Limit 40.
 Wednesday, Sept. 11, 5:30-6:30 PM

Eat Well with Parkinson's to Improve Quality of Life

The importance of proper nutrition for those living with Parkinson's disease can't be overstated. Recent research suggests that proper nutrition and regular exercise play an important role in reducing symptoms. Stony Brook Southampton Hospital's Registered Dietitian, Paula Montagna, MS, RD, CDN will explore how approaching our diet with a "food as medicine" mindset can lead to a higher quality of life. Registration required. Limit 30.

Wednesday, Sept. 18, 5:30-6:30 PM

Technology and Parkinson's

Discover how the use of technology will help empower people living with Parkinson's disease. Sarah Cohen, administrator for the Center for Parkinson's Disease at Stony Brook Southampton Hospital, will discuss how technology can be used to track symptoms, streamline communication with your medical team, and improve quality of life. Registration required. Limit 40.

Wednesday, Sept. 25, 5:30-6:30 PM

2020 BUDGET INFORMATION

The proposed operating budget will result in a total increase to the taxpayers of $78,168, less than $5.00 per year for a home valued at $500,000, due to changes in the annual tax rate.

The 2020 Operating Budget will provide the community with:

- Research assistance
- Public computers, printers and scanners
- Books and media
- Circulating Museum Passes and WiFi Hotspot Devices
- Programs, films, and concerts for children, teens, families, and seniors
- Downloadable books, audio-books, newspapers, films and magazines
- Classes in the use of computers and other new technologies
- Quiet spaces to think and dream.

Generous contributions from the Friends of the Library and other private donations help to keep the increase down.
